The Mark of the Christian

“By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.” John 13:35

External marks of identification are accepted in our culture. If you work in a company, you may wear an I.D. badge. If you live in a gated community, you may need a windshield sticker to gain access. And, if you want to check your child in or out at a nursery or school, you will probably need a picture I.D. card.

I.D. marks and badges are so common today that it will likely be no surprise when the coming Antichrist requires every person on earth to receive a mark on his or her forehead or hand signifying their allegiance to him—and thereby, their right to buy and sell in the marketplace. Christians, on the other hand, have an ancient mark instituted by Christ Himself: love for one another. He said the world will know His disciples by the presence (or absence) of love. The Antichrist's disciples will be identified by a bodily mark of some sort, while Christ's disciples will be (and should be today) identified by their love for one another.

The question for every Christian is, “How plain is Christ's mark in your life? How obvious is it that you belong to Him?”

He that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap
life everlasting.

Galatians 6:8
